Tuesday, June 16, 2009*

*To be reserved by June 6th
(€ 80,00 per person)*

The Grand Hotel Rimini was designed by the South American architect Paolo Somazzi and was inaugurated on July 1st 1908.

Federico Fellini loved the Grand Hotel so much that he decided to immortalize it in some of his most famous films that gave the hotel a worldwide fame : particularly "Amarcord" (I remember) where the inimitable and fascinating atmosphere of the Grand Hotel are the background to some of the most memorable scenes.
